Distributed Courses

If a course is being “distributed” to you, it means that someone else has paid for it and is sending it to you to complete. You should check your email for a link and instructions on how to accept it.

Fundamentals of Coaching (Blended)

If you took a portion of Fundamentals of Coaching in person, you can register your progress and complete the course online. At the course, you should have received a Participant Guide with a license number on the inside cover. On your Dashboard, click “Redeem a License” and enter your license number to access the online portion of your course.
